VIA Link Naco Pass Zone

	SERVICE HOURS	AVAILABILITY
Naco Pass Zone	5:00 a.m.–9:30 p.m.	Within 20–30 minutes
Northeast Lakeview College	5:00 a.m.–9:30 p.m.	Within 30–60 minutes

Some routes have buses that come by the stops more frequently than others. VIA uses colors to distinguish this route “frequency”. Route frequencies are colored based on their weekday frequencies during midday.

	Primo service Every 12 minutes
	Frequent service Every 15–20 minutes
	Standard service Every 30 minutes
	Standard service Every 40–60 minutes
	Standard service Every 90 minutes, or limited-time service only

Additionally, some buses stop at many places along the route, while others have limited stops or travel express along highways with no stops. The dash route line identifies these “Skip” or “Express” routes.

	Regular route Provides local service to almost every stop along the route.
	Skip route Provides limited-stop service to major destinations and transfer points along portions marked with a broken line. Primo services are also skip routes.
	Express route Provides nonstop service along highways to connect transit centers and major business parks.

FARE INFORMATION

- Ask the Operator for a transfer when boarding. Transfers are valid for 150 minutes. If transferring from a regular service to Express Service, additional fare is required.
- Tap to Pay allows you to pay for a Single-Ride fare directly at the farebox using a credit or debit card. For added convenience, you can also use wearables such as smartwatches and other devices equipped with this feature. Simply tap your credit card, debit card, or device on the Tap to Pay target located at the top of the farebox (look for the Tap to Pay icon on your card)))
- Reduced fares: Students, seniors, children, persons with disabilities, veterans, active duty military, and Medicare recipients are eligible for a reduced fare. Riders ages four and under may ride free when accompanied by a fare-paying adult.
